A LABOR SAVING MACHINE.-We lish to-day an advertisement of the Metropolitan Clothes Washer and Universal Clothes Wringer, which are being manufactured and sold by Mr. Lewis Huber, at 107 Magazine street, New Orleans, and which have met with great favor and extensive sale in that city. Mr. Bacon, one of the editors of the Picayane, thus certifies as to itsutility and simplicity:

"I have put to use the Metropolitan Washing Machine and Universal Cog Wheel "I have put to use the Metropolitan Washing Machine and Universal Cog Wheel Wringer, which I procured of you. Yesterday two weeks' washing was done with them between 10 A. M. and I P. M.; the clothes being at that time starched and dried: the whole work being more satisfactorily done than if by hand. It would have taken a stout washerwoman two days, but this did not at all give fatigue.
